Dear Mr. Snively:

On behalf of the above company, and being authorized by the company to make such representations, we indicate the following:

This letter sets forth Tyco Electronics Corporation's ("TEC") patent licensing policy regarding any T11 standard, current or future. TEC is not willing to waive its rights in its relevant, essential patent and patent applications (collectively "IPR"). However, TEC is willing to negotiate licenses for its IPR on reasonable and nondiscriminatory terms and conditions. In particular, TEC is willing to negotiate nonexclusive, worldwide licenses under its IPR to allow the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale and importation of the
